Dear Prime Clerk:

I have a pending Personal Injury Claim against Purdue Pharma, L.P., et al. I received a Proof of Claim letter regarding this claim in August of 2020. This letter stated that my claim was received on June 29, 2020, and was assigned the Claim Number - 67628. (See Exhibit One) I was grateful that I had not missed the Claim Submission deadline of June 30, 2020.

Although I had requested some additional medical records prior to filing my claim, the processing of my request for these medical records was greatly delayed, due to the Coronavirus Pandemic. Because the requested medical records were stored in the Medical Records Department's Archives, those records had to be manually retrieved. When the Pandemic started, most of the employees worked from home for several months, answering questions over the telephone and the Internet. When those employees returned to work, there was huge backlog of requests for medical records. I did not receive my requested medical records until early March of 2021. After I had received those records, I called Purdue Pharma on Friday, March 19, 2021. My first call at 1:43PM was answered by Ephraim. I explained to Ephraim that I had some additional medical information that I needed to include with my pending Personal Injury Claim against Purdue Pharma. Ephraim explained that I would have to submit a second Personal Injury Claim Form. Ephraim explained that I would need to check "Yes" to the question on Page 2, Line 4 on the claim form, which asks -- "Does this claim amend one already filed?" He also said that I would need to add my assigned claim number and the date of receipt of my claim to the respective areas, also on Line 4. (See Exhibit Two) Ephraim went on to say that I would also need to include all of the information that I had included with my initial claim, along with the new information, in my amended claim. I said okay and I thanked Ephraim for his help. Later, I remembered that I'd forgotten to ask for the address of where I should send my amended claim to. I called Purdue Pharma a second time at approx 3:50PM, and Matt answered my call. Matt confirmed everything that Ephraim had told me earlier, and said that I needed to send my amended claim to the same address that I had sent my initial claim to. I thanked Matt for his help.

When I prepared my amended Personal Injury Claim Form, I did everything that I was told to do by both Ephraim and Matt. Afterward, I mailed my amended claim to Purdue Pharma on April 8, 2021, and I received a confirmation letter from the Prince Clerk on April 24, 2021. However, this second confirmation letter stated that my Claim Number is 620,883, instead of 67,628, the Claim Number that was originally assigned to my claim. Also, this second confirmation letter stated that my claim was received on April 14, 2021, instead of the original receipt date of my claim, which was June 29, 2020. (See Exhibit Three) The April 14, 2021, date is well past the June 30, 2020, deadline for filing a claim against Purdue Pharma, and may unjustly disqualify my claim altogether. THIS IS WRONG!! UNFAIR!!

When I spoke to Ephraim and Matt on March 19, 2021, neither of them told me that my original claim number would be changed, or that I would lose my place in the line of claimants against Purdue Pharma. Both men told me to include my claim number on the amended claim form, which I did. This specific instruction from both Ephraim and Matt inferred that I would keep the same Claim Number. Instead, my Claim Number was changed from five digits (67,628) to six digits (620,883), and my place in the line of claimants against Purdue Pharma has drastically depreciated.

Please restore my original Claim Number, 67628, and my original receipt date of June 29, 2020, to my pending, amended claim against Purdue Pharma. It is wrong to penalize my claim for a circumstance that is beyond my control. The Coronavirus Pandemic is the reason that I could not include all of my pertinent medical information with my initial claim. This fact made it necessary to file an amended claim. I hope that the Prime Clerk will do the right thing and correct this error immediately. I thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely Yours,
Cassandra Calhoun
